

cago, and now sporting writer on the Tribune, being sued by his wife for divorce. She alleges cruelty, non-support and association with other women.

Twenty persons injured last night in wreck on South Side "L". James Tobin, motorman, in serious condition. Loaded train crashed into six "empties." Alleged there was no red light on rear of empty train, and fog obscured Tobin's view of it.

Guards O'Keefe and Cohen had fight in county jail last night. Prisoners started to howl and Assistant Jailor Hoffman thought a riot had started. Sent riot calls to police station, and 50 men responded. Fight was over when they arrived.

Ten men detailed in plain clothes at Chicago avenue station ordered to report for duty in uniforms. Why not put the special newspaper policemen on beats?

Esther Jones, 13, sent home, from school because of bad behavior, disappeared after returning to the home of her aunt, Mrs. E. Mulliner, 3545 Ellis ave., with whom she has lived since her parents died.

Herman and John Ruginski, 9 and 4, respectively, found yesterday in doorway at S. Canal and 14th streets. Mother dead six months. Had lived with their father at 1313 S. Morgan street. He packed furniture on wagon and deserted them two days ago.

Elmer Lutz, 1914 Otto street, killed by Riverview park car on N. Rooney street.

Mrs. Clara Ann Green asked court that her alimony be increased from $15 to $20 because of "the high cost of living." She got the extra five.

Albert Reno, 6425 S. Halsted, struck by auto at Madison and Elizabeth as he jumped from wagon. Left arm and leg broken. Hospital.

Ten thousand pounds of fish, confiscated by state fish warden, because of illegal size and weights. Sent to charitable institutions.

"Seats for Women Association" has been formed. A "More Cars Association" would be a better solution of the problem.

Case of Archibald Fitzgerald, charged with luring girls to his bachelor apartments at 1532 Elk Grove ave., and attacking them, continued to Jan. 3. Mrs. Margaret Canfield, one alleged victim, fainted when she saw Fitzgerald in court yesterday.

Miss Alice M. Coulson, missionary worker, found dead in gas-filled room at 2344 Upton street yesterday. Had been dead several days. Police think death accidental.

Campaign to protect Edgewater and Sheridan Park from questionable places of amusement started at Edgewater Presbyterian church last night. Advisability of publishing names of owners of resorts discussed. Former U. S. District Attorney E. W. Sims charged police with collusion with vice interests. Said government once asked city police to aid in arrest of "white slav-